

Home Economics and Technology Teachers' Association of New Zealand

NATIONAL AGM & PLD DAY

Re:think Re:wind Re:kindle

FRIDAY 18 MAY 2018
Morning	School Visits - optional
Afternoon	Field Trips- optional
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lawson's Organic Farms Ltd. Organised by our platinum partner; Potatoes New Zealand http://trueearth.co.nz • Textiles - Kilt design room and factory www.kiltonline.co.nz and the MTG archives www.mtghawkesbay.com
6.30pm	Networking Dinner at Deliciosa – optional - additional cost 21 Napier Road, Havelock North, Hawke's Bay
SATURDAY 19 MAY 2018
8.30-9.00am	Registration and welcome coffee
9.00-9.20am	Powhiri and welcome Sarah Wirth, HETTANZ President and Greg Fenton, HNHS Principal (with HNHS Kapa Haka)
9.20-10.00am	Keynote speaker
10.00-10.30am	HETTANZ National AGM
10.30-11.00am	Morning Tea
WORKSHOPS SESSION ONE
	Fabrics	Home Economics	Hospitality	Technology
11.00am-12.25pm	Dress a girl around the world Presenter: Jo Pearson Hawke's Bay teacher's share a Level One Technology unit of work developed around making garments for girls in	Home Economics: What next? Presenter: Nicola Potts, HETTANZ Kaiarahi As the HETTANZ Home Economics Kaiārahi, Nicola is a subject specialist guide and leader.	Masterclass from Potatoes NZ	Laser cutting in the Technology classroom Presenter: Sara Allpress More schools are using laser cutting technology in their classrooms. Sara will share her experiences of laser

	3rd world countries. Presenters will show examples of student work that addresses social responsibility and upcycling.	In 2017 she connected with many teachers discussing a wide range of issues relating to Home Economics. After recent whistle stop visits to Auckland and Ashburton, Nicola is preparing a workshop to meet HETTANZ member's needs. Specific content coming soon!		cutting in the technology/textiles workshop and demonstrate how easy it is to use this technology and how accessible it is becoming.
12.30-1.25pm	Lunch and Trade Show
	WORKSHOPS SESSION TWO
	Fabrics	Home Economics	Hospitality	Technology
1.30-2.55pm	Pattern Drafting for junior secondary Technology Presenter: 'The Sewing Room' Deidre Morgan (DipBus,CertFashion Apparel. EIT) and Elise Cox (MA&D,PGDip. AUT) will step you through a range of quick pattern adaptation exercises suitable for use in the Fabric Technology classrooms. Manipulate scaled patterns and take back to your classrooms a range of sample resources.	Year 7&8 Food Classes and the Curriculum Presenters: Andrea Bidois – Manager, Food Service and Hospitality, Heart Foundation, Jeanette Rapson – Cooking Curriculum Project Intern, Heart Foundation and Bruce Robertson – Advocate, Vegetables.co.nz Almost two years on from the Massey Research on what was being taught in Food classes, the Heart Foundation and Vegetables.co.nz will share their journey on making the recommendations a reality. This evolving project is being	Masterclass TBC	Digital Evidence - the hows and whats? Presenter: Kay LeComte Look at simple e- portfolios, websites and options for gathering and publishing learner evidence. Discover software that is free online and readily available with a focus on how to mark and share work for moderation. Investigate some ways of strengthening technology literacy through the use of fun online apps and websites developed with teachers and is designed to assist and support the work carried out in year 7 & 8.

WORKSHOPS SESSION THREE
	Fabrics	Home Economics	Hospitality	Technology
3.00-4.30pm	New 'sewing toys' for classroom use Presenter: 'Bernina'	Food recovery Presenter: Christina McBeth , Nourished for Nil Nourished for Nil is a local non-profit organisation whose sole aim it is to rescue surplus food and redistribute it to the local Hawke's Bay community. Christina McBeth will talk about her experiences of establishing the organisation. Links to the NZC will be made.	Culinary Competitions and the curriculum Presenters: Glenn Fulcher, NZSSCC and Pip Duncan, vegetables.co.nz An interactive workshop to prepare for competitions, maximise student results and how they fit within the curriculum. The presenters are from the Culinary Arts Development Trust, organisers of the National Secondary School Culinary Challenge. Visit www.cadt.nz for for information.	Coding in the junior technology classroom using Microbit Presenter: Ian Kenny, Digital Circus This fun, hands on session will introduce you to the very basics of "how circuits work" and break down the barriers to using it in your class! Bring projects to life with flashing lights and "bells and whistles." And we'll show you how to receive on-going support – whether it's technical, curriculum or resources.
4.30pm	Evaluation, refreshments and farewell
6.30pm	Networking Dinner at St Georges Restaurant – optional – additional cost 452 St Georges Road, Havelock North, Hawke's Bay
Looking for accommodation in Havelock North or Hastings?
For accommodation assistance contact info@visithastings.co.nz 06 877 9600 (Havelock North) 06 873 5526 (Hastings)				